Mission Statement: The Analyst & Associate Board (A&AB) provides young professionals with transformative educational opportunities in finance and business, as well as networking events, mentorship, and guidance to help young professionals develop into the Chicago financial leaders of tomorrow.

Comprised of driven Financial Executives International (FEI) Chicago Chapter Members and Young Business Professionals, the Analyst & Associate Board (A&AB) endeavors to enhance connections between the financial leaders of today and the financial leaders of tomorrow. FEI Chicago supports membership of those that complete the application and choose to be involved in A&AB.

Our value proposition is our flexibility. In our current phase, we have potential to grow in a variety of ways both organically and together with FEI Chicago Chapter initiatives.

We named our group the Analyst & Associate Board to reflect our job titles at our respective companies or schools—as well as to highlight our youth—which we believe delivers a unique take on people, business trends, and decision making.
